PATRON MEMBER

Patron Members receive all of the benefits of membership and assist FCCDS financially to support our mission! In addition to all of the regular member benefits, you will receive a set of embroidered white polo wraps and a stall door card to use at shows and events to signify your contribution. Patron Members will also receive recognition in each newsletter and in our Year-end program. Annual adult, young rider or classic membership is included.

PATRON

The Patron Membership is for individuals in the community that wish to support the mission of the Society financially and do not want GMO registration with USDF. Patrons may attend any of our member events or social affairs and will receive an invitation to our Year-end Black Tie Awards Gala. All Patrons will receive recognition in each newsletter and in our Year-end program.

SOCIAL MEMBER

Social membership is for those who do not wish to ride at our clinics, shows or symposiums but want to audit those events, participate in our member's social affairs and seek continuing education through participation in our monthly highlighted USDF eTrak courses. Social Members will receive advance notice of, and priority registration for, auditing our clinics and symposiums. Group Member registration with USDF is included therefore all of the benefits of the affiliation will be extended. Should you wish to become a rider at one of our clinics, shows or symposiums later in the year, Social Membership is easily upgraded to an Adult, Young Rider or Senior membership. The $30.00 paid social membership fee will be subtracted from the upgrade.

OWNER MEMBER

A membership requirement for non-riding horse owners whose horse is competing in the Recognized Show Division.

SOCIETY PATRON MEMBER

Silver - Gold – Platinum. The next level of Patron Member support. This level of Membership allows individuals who share our vision to support the Society in fulfilling our mission with a higher financial contribution. Society Patron Members will receive a set of white polo wraps, along with a black ball cap both embroidered with our signature Fleur de Lis logo. Society Patron Members will also receive free refreshments from our 'donations accepted' refreshments table at shows and events, a framed stall door plaque to use at shows and events, priority stabling at all FCCDS shows, ability to select ride time assignments, priority car parking at shows and events, priority seating at our Year-end Black Tie Awards Gala, recognition in each newsletter and in our Year End program and surprise Society Thank You gestures throughout the year! Annual Adult, Young Rider or Senior is included. A Business Membership is also included for those Society Patron Members that own their own companies.

BUSINESS MEMBER

Business Memberships are offered so organizations may show their support for the sport of Dressage and are included for Society Patron Members that own their own companies. Business memberships will include advertisement space of a quarter page in each of our newsletters and be permitted to post advertisement materials at our shows and events. Business members will also receive an invitation to our Year-end Black Tie Awards Gala. All business memberships must be approved by the executive board and acceptance or refusal of an application may be made for any reason which need not be disclosed to the applicant. As a courtesy, FCCDS will work with the business representative to develop the artwork for their advertisements if needed – free of charge! Group Member registration with USDF is not included.
